

JAMES CURRAN

August 18, 1926

New Brunswick Police Officer

TESTIFIED (Page 679 et seq.):

Following orders, met officer Garrigan at Easton Avenue and Bartlett Street about 10:40 in Mr. Cather's car and met Schneider in front of Stryker's house across from the Parker home (679-81).

Went up De Russey Lane to Phillips Lane and up Phillips Lane with the others to the bodies. Removed both hats, looked at faces and neither he nor Garrigan could identify bodies (681-2).

Did not notice any letters or cards or that woman's throat was cut or position of Dr. Hall's eyes. Clothing looked as if bodies had been laid out and clothing smoothed down (683).

Left Garrigan, telephoned from Stryker's following orders stayed at De Russey Lane and Easton Avenue waiting for Somerset authorities. Stayed until nearly 12:30. Missed authorities who came through De Russey Lane from Hamilton Street (684).

Finally was told Somerset authorities had arrived. Went to scene of murder and left with Garrigan leaving Totten in charge. Did not see them pick up letters and cards (685).
